

Why Membership Matters....

Do you:

Maintain high standards of professional conduct?

Respect and support families in their task of nurturing children?

Promote the physical, emotional, intellectual and social development of children?

Support the lifelong process of personal growth and professional development?

Respect the contributions of individuals and organizations involved in professional in-home child care?

Stand out from the rest!

As a professional, you'll want add your INA Associates Member Logo to your resume!

If you answered yes, stand out and become an individual member of your industry leader in the in-home childcare profession!

Join the INA's mission to promote quality care while improving your credibility and helping your industry by supporting the INA.

Individual membership can be yours for only $45 per year!

Benefits include:

An elevated professional identity

Reduced fees at INA's annual conference

Networking opportunities with like-minded professionals

Opportunities to further your education and skill as a stand out professional nanny

International Job listings posted by INA Member Agencies

Access to industry research and publications

Member only discounts

And much, much more!!!

Don't wait, join today and see what INA can do to elevate you!

www.nanny.org/membership