Membership Benefits YOU

INA Logo

Members can use the INA logo to promote that they adhere to the INA Commitment to Professional Excellence and our Recommended Practices for Nannies.

INA Member Facebook Group

Members have access to our INA Member Facebook group where you can find other professional nannies and NCS to network with and learn from.

Educational Webinars and Professional Group Chats

Members can be a part of our regular Educational Webinars and monthly Group Chats through the INA Member Facebook Group

Caregiver Mentors

Members may request a short or long-term mentor so you can find help if you need professional encouragement or are looking for support in your career.

Discounts on INA Assessments and Exams

The Basic Skills Assessment shows you have the knowledge to care for children. The Nanny Credential Exam raises the bar by making you an INA Credentialed Nanny.

INA Conference

Members receive $100 off their registration rate for the INA Conference. This 3-day annual event will invigorate your career and lets you choose from 30 different industry-related workshops and network with industry leaders. inaconference.org

Other Discounts

Many businesses inside and outside our industry have generously offered to give exclusive discounts to INA members. A full list of these companies can be found on our website.

Nanny Employer Handbook

This useful resource is free to INA Members and includes resources for nannies and nanny employers. It includes a sample Work Agreement.

Nanny of the Year

Members are eligible for nomination as Nanny of the Year (NOTY) and the recipient represents a positive role model for our industry and association.

Ambassador Program

Members are able to apply for the Ambassador Program which aims to educate the community and raise awareness of the INA.

Service Pin Awards

Members can be recognized for your years of service in the industry. These awards are giving out at our annual conference every year to individuals in the industry 5 years and up.

Endowment

This program gives away several conference registrations to current full INA members to recognize our members for their dedication to the in-home child care industry.
